NEXT GENERATION WEALTH MANAGEMENT, INC. PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Next Generation Wealth Management, Inc. Appoints President

MEQUON, WISCONSIN – February 9, 2007 – David A. Massart, a veteran investment executive and a principal of Next Generation Wealth Management, Inc., (“NG Wealth Management”), has been promoted to President. He will become President effective February 9, 2007.

David A. Massart will succeed David A. Braaten, founder and current president of the firm. “I am delighted to be appointing David Massart to President. With his vast industry record, David is the right person to lead our company,” said David Braaten. “His appointment is further evidence of our commitment to our clients and their families for generations.”

Prior to joining NG Wealth Management in April 2005, Mr. Massart was a Manager at Wells Fargo Investments, LLC and Managing Director of the Strong Private Client Group, responsible for leading a team of 15 individuals, managing over 100 client relationships averaging over $2 million per household with assets exceeding $220 million. Under his leadership, Strong Private Client was cited by Cerulli & Associates as the 15th largest separate account manager in the United States.

David Massart: “NG Wealth has developed a comprehensive team and we are constantly striving to provide our clients a world class experience. I look forward to leading our firm for many, many years to come.”
